BISHOP SUE MOXLEY

Bishop Sue graduated from the University of Western Ontario (B.A., M.A.) and the University of Michigan (M.A., Ph.D.) before coming to Nova Scotia to work as a Professor at Dalhousie University. During that time, with the help of many others, she discerned a call to ordained ministry and continued her education at the Atlantic School of Theology (M.Div.). She was ordained Deacon, June 29, 1984 and Priest, March 25, 1985. She served in the parishes of Hatchet Lake & Terence Bay, and St. Mark's, Halifax. She was elected Suffragan Bishop, November 2003 and ordained Bishop on March 25, 2004. She was elected Diocesan Bishop October 20, 2007, and Installed to that office on November 23, 2007. Bishop Sue and her husband Bruce made their Cursillo Weekend in May 1984.
